

NEWPORT NEWS.

Two Battleships May Have Official Trial the Same Day.

The Late Proprietor of the Point of Pines Arrested—Another Big Industry Secured—The Longshoremen's Strike.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 9.—The Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company has expressed to the Navy Department officials at Washington its desire to have the official trial of the battleship Kearsarge take place September 28th.

In its application for the use of the dry dock at the Brooklyn navy yard, the company stated that the ship can be at New York ready for docking September 25.

From this it appears that the Kearsarge will not be at the shipyard September 18, as at first reported.

General Superintendent Walter A. Post went to Washington last night for the purpose of consulting with the Navy Department officials in reference to the approaching official trial of the Maine coast.

BROUGHT BACK FOR TRIAL.

Mr. John A. Lyons, formerly proprietor and manager of the Point of Pines Park, was arrested in Richmond last evening and brought back this morning by Special Policeman W. A. Crump, who was sent there by Rev. Thomas J. MacKay and his counsel, Col. J. C. Baker.

When Mr. Crump and Mr. Lyons reached the city they proceeded at once to police headquarters and Chief of Police Haywood sent for Col. Baker, District Attorney of Albemarle County, who has the warrants against Mr. Lyons. Mr. Lyons was in the city and lost no time in reaching headquarters. He at once took charge of Mr. Lyons and the two left for Hampton.

Following are the charges preferred against him by Rev. Thomas J. MacKay.

That Mr. Lyons sold beer on September 3d, to E. S. Spears, a minor.

That he sold beer to Magruder Jones on Sunday, August 27th.

That on divers occasions he sold liquor without license.

That on September 3 (Sunday) he sold beer to E. S. Spears.

BIG INDUSTRY SECURED.

A company has just been formed for the purpose of establishing here a large plant for the manufacture of shoes, doors and blinds and all kinds of church, office and bar fixtures.

Eventually this company will manufacture street cars, and as experienced men are behind it and they have abundant capital it is believed that the new industry will be a success from the start.

The new company will have a backing of at least $500,000, and no expense will be spared to make the industry a paying one.

The land for the plant has been secured from the Old Dominion Land Company. It comprises the twenty-four lots in the square at Thirty-fifth street and Warwick Avenue. An option has also been secured on the adjoining square.

THE LONG SHOREMEN.

It is stated that the organization of white longshoremen here sent to Baltimore several days ago to secure more men for the work on the piers. The white men are very anxious to organize a union, and it is believed that if they can secure several hundred members of their organization a charter will be granted them.

CROCKETT'S SPRINGS.

GUESTS GLAD THEY DIDN'T RUSH AWAY.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Crockett's Springs, Va., Sept. 8.—The hot spell in September finds all the guests glad they are here, and as those who must depart, go out on the track, the good wishes and sympathy of those who stay go with them.

We are never without a breeze by day or night, and as evening falls thick coats and light wraps appear on the broad porches of the hotel. Even the moonlight has no terrors for the mountain climber, and the falls each day echo with the laugh of happy girls and the low love-murmurs of the hard smitten "summer man." Of course the season of big crowds is over, but there are enough left to have a very lively time, and more are expected in a day or two.

A ball room is full each evening, and all gaily dance to the dreamy measures of the waltz and dash through the ever lively two-step. Nor is the good old "Virginia Reel" forgotten, for each night tribute is paid to the dance of our fathers. Fortune telling in the afternoon is now quite the fad, and every one is filled with the mysteries of the future.

Hon. W. M. Drennon, Birmingham's popular mayor, is here, and carries himself as popular in the "summer world" as he has in the political sphere of his Southern home.

Every nook and corner is just now occupied by some one who, at solitaire, is trying for their life to beat himself, or herself, at his, or her, own game.

The departure of Mrs. Chas. L. Holland, of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Levy and Miss Curtis, of Baltimore, was deeply regretted, and more than one fair young face has worn a sad, sweet smile since Messrs. Jamison, Mann and Antrim took themselves away. Miss McCurley and Miss Russell, of Baltimore, who have been here over a month at the guests of Mrs. Tamm, at Beechwood Cottage, left for home Thursday, and Crockett's losses in them two of the resort's most charming young women.

Monday evening a progressive heart party was given. The prizes were unusually beautiful, and the evening was all that could be asked. Our host, Mr. Thomas, furnished refreshments, which were much enjoyed. The first ladies' prize was won by Miss Mary Johnson, of Birmingham; the second by Miss Cella Smith, of Baltimore; the first gentleman's prize was won by Mr. Chas. W. B. Lane, of Norfolk; the second by Mr. E. M. Tutwiler, of Birmingham.

Among the late arrivals are Mr. P. F. Greenwood, Miss Pattle Potts, Mr. B. J. Walham, Mrs. M. N. Langhorne, all of Richmond; Judge Wm. I. Clifton and wife, of Manchester, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Goodwin, Frank W. Thomas, Ro. M. Kent, Jr., of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Wm. King, Miss King and Wm. King, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va.; Mrs. H. E. Graham, Helena, Ark.; Mr. E. M. Tutwiler, E. M. Tutwiler, Jr., Herbert Tutwiler and Hon. W. M. Drennon, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mr. A. F. Houghton, New York City; J. G. Sheffield, of Houston, Va.; Mr. E. B. Lewis, of Brunswick county, Va.; Mr. E. S. Mills, Greensboro, N. C.; Rev. J. A. H. Shuler, Pulaski, Va.; Miss Mary A. Hooper, Farmville, Va.; Miss Maggie Goodson, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Charles Lucey, Houston, Texas; Mr. Edward W. James, Mr. Fred S. Robbins and wife, Matamoros, Texas; Mr. W. G. Cain, Tyler, Texas.

MONTGOMERY WHITE.

GUESTS WHO REMAIN ARE FAR FROM DULL.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Montgomery Springs, Va., Sept. 8.—Although the advent of autumn has caused the departure of some of our guests, those who remain are far from dull or triste. Truth to tell, one has more time now for forming real friendships and for knowing one's neighbor than in the hurry and excitement of the season.

We were loath, indeed, to part with the large Portsmouth colony that was here for two months. To particularize as regards their charm and attractiveness would be invidious, so merely the mention of a few names will be sufficient for one to infer how fortunate the resort was in having been chosen for their summer outing. Among them were Mrs. Syne, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Godwin, Mrs. Williams, Miss Williams, Mrs. Evans and family, Mr. and Mrs. White, Miss White, Mr. and Mrs. Howells and many others.

Last Saturday night the parlors were the scene of the most recherche event of the season. The Misses Parrott, of Columbus, Ohio, entertained at a card party in honor of the birthday of their father, Col. John Parrott. While known to be of unimpaired integrity, none believed the Colonel was celebrating. Neither in looks, manners or acts does he appear to be as old as he said he was, and we all think he must have misread the date in the family Bible.

In the large parlors seven whist tables were arranged and the couples paired most happily by the Misses Parrott, fell to the game with an eagerness and quietude rarely seen when women are around. In the smaller parlor euchre was much enjoyed by quite a number to whom the mysteries of whist were unknown delights.

About 11 all were asked to enter the supper room, where dainty and delicious refreshments were served. The large center table was the cynosure of all eyes, as the floral piece was one of rare combination and skill. A large bowl filled with the handsomest of the purple pink thistle stood lordly and grand beside the delicate purity of the lace plant. The base of the bowl was lined with ribbon the color of the thistles and upon the table around the bowl were intertwined delicate fern leaves. The beauty of this centerpiece consisted in its coloring and simplicity and should be seen to be appreciated. The large birthday cake was cut by Col. Parrott, while Mrs. Hull, of Augusta, and Mrs. Kirtledge, of Louisiana, two old friends of the host, presided at the coffee and chocolate urns. Sandwiches, cakes, ices and candies, with laughter, toasts, good wishes and general enjoyment, made the passing hours, and all were indeed sorry to say good-night. All the guests united in the good wishes to the hosts, and each most deservedly hoped that all would be at Montgomery White to help the Colonel celebrate his next anniversary.

Monday was the scene of great excitement. About twelve hundred people from Roanoke, Christiansburg and other places celebrated Labor Day. The Red Men made much fun and enjoyment for all. Their sham-battle and war dance were great and elicited much applause. A fine band of the lawn furnished music to those who did not wish to "trip the light fantastic" to the soft strains of the orchestra in the ball room.

Tuesday night a "tacky party," in which young and old took part, was a great success. Among the prize winners were Miss Martin, Norfolk; Mr. Moss, New Orleans; Miss Harrison, Miss Nellie Gordon, Mr. Clinton Boyd and Mr. Willie Mitchell, Richmond. The costumes of all were most ridiculous, particularly Mr. Martin's and Mr. Mitchell's. Miss Mitchell and Miss Harrison were charmingly picturesque and many begged them to sit for their photographs. Judge Whitehurst, of Norfolk, made a speech in presentation in his admirable style, while Mrs. Boyd, of Richmond, awarded the prizes. The judges who so impartially decided upon this uniqueness and "lackiness" of the contestants were Judge Whitehurst, Mrs. Hull and Mrs. Southall.

SWEET CHALYBEATE.

MANY GUESTS LINGER TO SPEND SEPTEMBER.

Sweet Chalybeate, Va., Sept. 9.—With the beginning of autumn, the homeward rush has begun, but the Sweet Chalybeate still has many guests who will spend September—the most attractive month of the year—in the mountains. One's days slip by so pleasantly with golf, tennis, and riding in the day, and cards in the evening.

Mrs. Boykin's euchre party Wednesday evening, given to her daughter, Mrs. Baldwin, was delightful. The players were Messdames Cooke, Dobie, Dancy, Boykin, Baldwin, Walton and Taylor.

Mr. Robert Baldwin gave a small heart party to his sister, Nina Boykin, on Tuesday evening. Miss Kira, of Portsmouth, won the prize, a large box of Huyler's bon-bons.

Mr. Henry Cooke, of Baltimore, entertained the Misses Lewis, of Lyneside, at dinner on Sunday evening.

No lack of amusement was caused by the "Donkey party" Monday evening. Mrs. Boykin won the first prize, a silver-mounted pumice; Mrs. Taylor second prize, a silver pencil; Mr. Fredell Jenkins the third prize, a silver pen.

Miss Emily Allyn gave a charming heart party Tuesday morning. Miss Allyn's guests were Misses Walton, Leigh, Heath, Marshall, Chamberlain, Cooke, and Mrs. Baldwin. Miss Heath won the first prize, a pretty gilt frame.

Mrs. Lee, of Alexandria, entertained a few friends at euchre Wednesday evening. The players were Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Kinsey, and

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Norfolk Typographical Union, No. 32, will hold their regular monthly meeting this afternoon. The new by-laws will probably be adopted at this meeting.

Another Labor Day has come and gone. The committee who had the affair in charge exerted every effort to make the celebration a success, and how admirably they succeeded is best attested by the thorough manner in which the program was carried out. They deserve and will receive the thanks of every labor organization in the city. Those who were fortunate enough to hear Mr. Harry Lloyd, of Boston, on that occasion will long remember his brilliant speech in expounding the labor cause. Mr. C. C. Williams, of Portsmouth, executive of Central Labor Union, has more than endeared himself to his fellow workmen by the able manner in which he presented and graphically stated the objects and history of the formation of that organization, together with the great good it has accomplished since its existence. Central Labor Union also desires to thank all merchants and others who contributed so liberally on that occasion, thus helping to a successful conclusion a good and worthy cause.

The current issue of the American Federationist contains a fine half-toned engraving of President Grover Cleveland, of the American Federation of Labor, and Mr. Frank Morrison, the able secretary. Both of these gentlemen are personally known to the trade unionists of this city.

"Whether you work by the piece or work by the day, Decreasing your hours increases your pay."

Ask for union label goods. Don't be satisfied with simply asking for them, but insist upon having them.

The trade union movement was never numerically, financially or intellectually in better condition than it is now, but it is not by any means as good, strong and powerful as it can be, should be and will be if we but do our duty—American Federationist.

It is your duty to be a member of your trade union. If no union of your trade exists, form one.

Organized labor extends its beneficent and protective hand to the weak and the unprotected, goes down into the deep abysses of misery and despair, and into the darkest recesses of poverty and demoralization, and helps to lift up those whose hearts and spirits are nearly crushed out of them, so that they learn the duties, the rights in society to their place among their fellow men.—Samuel Gompers.

Judging by the progress recently made, the nine-hour work day will be an established rule in every city and hamlet in the country within another year.

Inmates of the Printers' Home at Colorado Springs, are now maintained at an average cost of $21.42 per month. The actual expenses of maintaining the home during the past year was $29,758.65.

General Secretary Mat. Morris, Retail Clerks' International Union, reports the issuance of sixteen charters during the month of August.

Clauses in the Kansas City Council's contract on the high school building in that city require that all labor employed thereon shall be union labor.

A central labor union has been established at Newport News. A charter has been issued by the American Federation of Labor.

The International Typographical Union will petition Congress to enact a law providing for the use of the Allied Printing Trades label in the Government Printing Office.

The City Council of Winnipeg donated $10 towards Labor Day celebration in that city.

It is said that the Bricklayers' International Union has voted to affiliate with the Federation of Labor.

The union label must now appear on all printing done by the city of Grand Rapids, Mich. An ordinance to that effect so orders.

The Order of Railway Trainmen, having an aggregate membership of over 23,000, will move their headquarters to Cleveland, Ohio, at the close of the present year.

The Minnesota Bureau of Labor Statistics, in its examination of conditions in the manufacturing districts of St. Paul, finds that out of 14,000 workingmen therein employed, only 9 per cent. own their own homes.

The referendum vote just taken by the International Association of Machinists indicate that the headquarters of the organization will be moved from Chicago to Washington, D. C.

The iron moulders' union label will the Misses S. Cooke, Saunders and Jarvis. Mrs. Jackson was the lucky player, winning a handsome silver pin-tray.

Mr. Trotman, of Churchland, Va., also gave a charming card party Wednesday evening.

On Wednesday morning all the younger set spent a delightful day at Beaver Dam Falls on a picnic given by Mr. Eakle. On their return home the same party was entertained by Miss Armstrong at a seven-hand euchre party. Those present were the Misses Allyn, H. Chamberlain, Baynie Taylor, Esther Byrnes, Connie Lee, Cherry Nottingham, Ellen Bell and Shepard. Miss Connie Lee won the first prize, a pretty piece of cut glass, and Miss Baynie Taylor the booby, a box of chocolates.

VIRGINIA BEACH.

JOTTINGS OF INTEREST FROM THIS POPULAR RESORT.

Virginia Beach, Sept. 9.—The celebration of Labor Day at the Beach, though not attended by any formal speech-making, was a great success, and from high authority comes the statement that the crowd hauled that day far exceeded that of any previous

The Chicago carpenters are thoroughly organized, and now have seventeen local unions of the brotherhood and five branches of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners. Thomas Neal, secretary-treasurer of the Carpenters' Council, says that there are 6,700 carpenters in the Chicago organization.

The trade union label is the epitome of trade union philosophy. To understand the role it plays we must look to the meaning of the whole labor movement. Laborers have organized for protection and education. They consider the interests of the laboring classes as identical, as opposed to those of the employing class; they believe that amelioration can come only by organization and action. This faith is intense and constant. Naturally, then, they antagonize unorganized labor and those employers who are unfriendly. They appeal to the public for sympathy and assistance. As a means to strengthen them in this threefold attitude the union label was invented.—Father Kerby.

General President Martin Fox, Iron Moulders' Union, reports that since the previous general meeting of the union in 1895, out of a total of 292 grievances, 206 were settled without a strike. Of the 86 strikes sanctioned by the general office, the union was successful in 62, lost 22 and settled two by compromise. Of these 19 were for advance in wages, 40 of which were successful, while nine were lost. Twenty-nine were against a reduction of wages, 18 were successful and 11 were lost. The disbursement for strike purposes during the four years amounted to $175,708.49, or an average monthly expenditure of $3,660.59.

Five thousand men were benefited by the recent reduction in working hours from ten to nine a day in the Milwaukee breweries. There was no corresponding reduction in wages.

Thirteen labor representatives were elected to Parliament at the recent English elections. When it is remembered that in England none but a householder has a vote, and that members of Parliament serve without compensation, it will be readily understood that the English trades unionists are fully alive to the importance of having a hand in the framing of laws affecting their own interests.

The 4,000 cigarmakers who have been out on strike at Tampa, Fla., have returned to work, their demands having been conceded by the manufacturers. Several hundred of them left for Cuba at the beginning of the trouble.

The recent convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers authorized the publication of a weekly paper by the association, subject to the approval of the members of the various local lodges. They have voted almost unanimously in favor of the project.

The gross daily value of manufactured goods in the Pittsburgh district alone, it is claimed, at present exceeds $5,000,000. Two hundred and seventy thousand men are employed within a radius of ten miles of the city hall, principally in the iron, steel, glass and coal industries.

Mining prices have been advanced 5 per cent. in the last field of West Virginia. Day laborers also receive a proportionate advance.

It is reported that the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have decided to pension the men that grow old in their service, and that $300,000 will be set aside yearly for that purpose.

At a meeting of the glass manufacturers and the Executive Committee of the Bottle Blowers' Association, at Atlantic City, recently, it was agreed upon an increase of about 10 per cent. being granted.

President Spencer, of the Southern Railway, has decided to restore the 10 per cent. out of employees, which has been retained in force since 1896, when the railroad was re-chartered. Announcement to that effect will be made about September 10th, it is stated.

The Cigarmakers' International Union were the originators and principal promoters of the union label idea.

Norfolk Lodge No. 11, International Association of Machinists, will meet next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Bricklayers' Hall.

Portsmouth Lodge No. 41, International Association of Machinists, will meet next Friday evening in Elks' Hall, Portsmouth, Va.

The Local Retail Clerks' Association will hold their regular monthly meeting to-morrow night.

Norfolk Local Union, No. 60, Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, will hold their regular monthly meeting next Wednesday evening.

like occasion. The First Virginia Regiment and played both morning and evening in the pavilion. The games were enjoyed by hundreds, and the fire-works at night were unusually elaborate.

All day long and far into the night the board walk was thronged with many men and maidens, who came to pass a pleasant time, and it is safe to say they were by no means disappointed. Not an accident occurred, and the officials of the road are to be congratulated on having carried so large a crowd, in safety, to and from the Beach.

When it was announced that Mr. Hendon, who has had charge of the Princess Anne during the summer, would leave on Tuesday, it was feared the hotel would close and end the summer season. Great satisfaction followed the announcement made by Mr. B. P. Holland that the hotel would be kept open through the entire winter season and the music retained for the benefit of the many people.

The social events of the week were few, but, as usual, very pleasant, leading off with the late meeting of the Ladies' Progressive Euchre Club, held in the writing-room. There were five tables. The first prize was a white silk fan, and was won by Mrs. James Walker, of Richmond. The second, a bisque figure, by Miss Gordon. The booby prize, three packs of cards, was secured by Mr. Goldsboro, of Baltimore. Miss Ella Hayes cut for and won the consolation, a pair of gold stockings, and so ended the club meetings for the summer season of 1899. That they have been very delightful none can deny, and it is to be hoped that the summer of 1900 shall have rolled around they will be re-organized and conducted as successfully.

The next event was a card party, given by Mrs. Walker, of Richmond, in the Hayes cottage. Mrs. Walker entertained her guests at seven-handed euchre, and served dainty refreshments. Those present were Mrs. L. Adams, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. B. P. Holland, Miss Drewry, Mrs. Leigh and Mrs. H. Baker. The first prize, a carbon portrait of the Countess Potaki, was won by Mrs. Holland; the booby, by Miss Drewry, a work-basket.

Miss M. Leigh, Misses Myra and Jessie Jones left Wednesday for Richmond.

BOYKIN.

RELIGIOUS—HOME SOLD—WIND STORM—PERSONAL.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Boykins, Va., Sept. 9.—Protracted meeting was held at Whitehead's Methodist Church this week on the Newsum's charge. Rev. N. B. Foushee is the popular pastor. The attendance was very large, and there were quite a number of conversions. Rev. John W. Nicholson, pastor of South Princess Anne circuit, did the preaching for the first four days. His sermons were most excellent ones, and they made a very fine impression.

Dr. J. H. M. Sykes, a prominent physician living near town, has sold his large and valuable home place to Mr. Philip Powell for the sum of $5,000. Dr. Sykes contemplates removing to Richmond. Our people are sorry to have an excellent Christian gentleman leave our community.

One of the severest wind storms of this year visited a small section of our county in Mr. F. P. Pope's neighborhood last Wednesday afternoon. It was of the nature of a tornado, doing special damage to shade and fruit trees.

Rev. C. L. Corbett, a young Baptist divine in charge of work on the Eastern Shore, but formerly a resident of this place, was in town this week.

Miss Lizzie Morgan, one of Suffolk's attractive young ladies, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. T. O. Edwards.
